Portfolio

The College of Nursing recognizes credit by portfolio and provides a process by which students may translate professional experience and education into academic credit. Students earn credit by developing a portfolio that documents how they have acquired nursing knowledge and skills that meet the learning outcomes in a specific College of Nursing course. Students in the RN-BSN degree or RN-MSN pathway may earn a maximum of eight credits through portfolio evaluation. Upon approval to complete the portfolio, the course number, title, and credit with no grade will be applied to the student record. The College does not guarantee that credits given for prior learning by other colleges and universities will be accepted for transfer.

The student will be charged a non-refundable processing fee of $500 to the College of Nursing. The letter of intent form is found on the College website and should contain the semester of intended portfolio completion, and a brief summary of the student's work history as an RN. The fee is not refundable once the student submits the portfolio.

If the portfolio is not submitted during the intended semester, the fee for review will be applied to the next semester. Students may carry this fee over for one semester only. If the portfolio is not approved, the student will be allowed an opportunity to revise and resubmit once without an additional fee. The student would be charged the processing fee at that time if a third submission of the portfolio is required. No additional submissions will be accepted after the third trial.

Completed portfolios must be submitted by October 15 for review and awarding of credit for fall semester. Completed portfolios must be submitted by March 15 for review and awarding of credit for spring semester.
