Directions

1. Pre-heat oven to 425°F. Place potatoes in a large bowl and toss with olive oil, 1 teaspoon of dried thyme, and 1 dash of salt and pepper. Once evenly coated, space potatoes on a large baking sheet. Bake for 20-25 minutes, or until easily pierced with a toothpick.
2. Remove potatoes from oven. Cool for 10-15 minutes. Increase oven temperature to 450°F.
3. Once potatoes have cooled, gently slice off the top of each potato and use a small spoon or melon baller to hollow out each potato skin. Place potato filling into a medium sized bowl. Mash potato filling with a fork, combining it with sour cream, crumbled turkey bacon, broccoli, red bell pepper, a dash of thyme and a dash of salt and pepper. Mix evenly.
4. Using a small spoon, gently re-fill each hollow potato skin with the potato mixture. Each potato should mound slightly. Sprinkle each potato with shredded cheese.
5. Bake potatoes at 450°F for 8-10 minutes. Serve warm.
